DANSK RUSSISK FORENING MIDTJYLLAND

Lørdag d. 7. Marts kl. 13.30 Dokk1, M2

Artem Alexandrovich Markaryan Centerleder Russisk Center for Videnskab og Kultur 1552 København V

Public and cultural relations between Denmark and Russia

The Russian Center for Science and Culture in Copenhagen, Denmark is tasked with profiling Russia as a country, promoting Russian language and culture in Denmark by undertaking several social and cultural activities that give participants an insight into Russia's modern life, painting, music, literature, theater, film and science

The Center collaborates with several Russian, Danish, Swedish and other countries institutions and professionals in the arts and culture to conduct a wide range of activities: conferences, exhibitions, theatrical performances, film festivals, concerts, artistic evenings with well-known personalities , lectures, seminars, etc.